

Sunday Worship

Human history is filled with The Quest for knowledge. We have explored, experimented, and educated ourselves about our world, our oceans and even the space beyond us. We are fascinated with knowledge. As Christians, we want to know about God. His characteristics, His will, His passion, and the list can go on. But hopefully, we don't want to only know about God, but we want to know Him. That is the ultimate Quest. To know God, not for the sake of knowing God, but so that we can become like Him and exhibit Him to others.

Dear Parents,

The children loved feeding and petting all the animals from Animals R Us petting zoo. I think the favorite animal was the bunny. I heard a lot of the children talking about the pony as well.

All of the classrooms have caterpillars and will soon have butterflies!
